Oldest Catholic Parish in North Alabama—

My Dear Parish Family,

May the blessings of Easter Effect be with you and your family. May the Resurrected - disguised God be visible to you. We, as a parish family, began this year answering the question: "Whom are you looking for?" (Jn 18:4) in Advent, and in Lent, we added another question of Jesus to it: "What are you looking for?" (Jn :38).

I am so grateful for your Lenten efforts of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Hope our common meditation aid booklet "The Season for Healing Hearts" was useful. Thank you for your support and participation in "Gratitude Cards" and "Prayer Ribbons." Thank you for taking this Lenten season seriously; participation in Lenten activities was very good in our parish.

Thanks to each and every one of you who worked so hard to make Lent and Holy week at Visitation a spiritual experience. Thanks to all the 53 Ministries for working in harmony with each other. I humbly request everyone to make use of the opportunity of Divine Mercy Novena days. Together we are working this year to "Grow your Tent" (Isaiah 54:2). Thank you for your support and team work to build a beautiful Columbarium and make our parish a "Rekindled family of God." Let us make Visitation a land of the living.

Gratefully,

Fr. Joy

Christ Is Risen! He Has Risen Indeed!

In the heart of the Catholic faith, the proclamation of Christ's resurrection echoes through time and eternity. Allow me to share some reflections on this profound truth:

The Triumph of Easter: On that glorious Easter morning, the tomb was empty, and the risen Christ emerged from the clutches of death. The angelic proclamation to Mary at the tomb resounds: "He is not here; he has risen, just as he said" (Matthew 28:6, NIV). This momentous event changed the course of human history.

Nikolai Ivanovich Bukharin's Encounter: In the early 20th century, Russian Communist leader Nikolai Ivanovich Bukharin attempted to undermine Christianity during a public address. He attacked the faith, seeking to convince the crowd to reject Christ. However, the parish priest responded with a powerful truth: "CHRIST IS RISEN!" The people, as one, thundered back: "HE IS RISEN INDEED!"

The Empty Tomb and Burial Clothes: The Gospel accounts emphasize the significance of the empty tomb and the burial clothes. John and Peter both witnessed the linen cloths that had covered Jesus. These details refute any claims that Jesus did not rise from the dead. The tomb was empty, and the risen One's glory shone forth.

The Paschal Greeting: The phrase "He is risen indeed" is part of the paschal greeting exchanged on Easter Sunday. It resonates across various Christian traditions, including Eastern Orthodox, Oriental Orthodox, Eastern Catholic, Latin Catholic, and Anglican churches. When greeted with "Christ is Risen!" the response is joyfully given: "He is Risen Indeed!"

St. Paul's Testimony: Around 55 AD, St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians, affirming that Our Risen Lord had appeared to the Apostles, himself, and more than 500 people simultaneously. The reality of Christ's resurrection was not a mere legend but a living truth.

So, let us join in the ancient proclamation: Christ Is Risen! He Has Risen Indeed! May this truth continue to resonate in our hearts and transform our lives.
