Dear Beloved Family of God,

Happy Easter! Today, we rejoice in the glorious resurrection of our Savior, Jesus Christ. It is through His triumph over sin and death that we are filled with hope and renewed in His eternal promise of love and salvation.

We as a parish family began this year with Bishop Raica lighting the candle of Jubilee of Hope and Renew Visitation. He blessed and opened the new wheel chair access door. Our theme was "Renew" and in Lent we added "Be Holy" to the theme. We are an official pilgrimage site of the Jubilee of Hope, and my wish is that we all take spiritual advantage of the opportunity.

I am so grateful for your Lenten efforts of practicing virtues daily in addition to prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Hope all the efforts and programs we had in this Lent were useful in renewing ourselves and becoming holier. Thank you for your incredible participation. Thanks to all our 64 ministries and their heads for the awesome leadership.

As we celebrate this holy day, I pray that your hearts may be touched by the boundless joy and peace of the risen Lord. May the light of Christ shine brightly in your lives, guiding you to love, hope, serve, and grow ever closer to Him.

Thank you for being a cherished part of our Visitation spiritual family. Your faith and devotion inspire me, and I am grateful to walk with you in our shared journey of faith.

May God's blessings be with you and your loved ones this Easter and always.

In the Love of Christ and the Mother,
Fr. Joy Thomas Nellissery
